

Station Rose.

ART PRODUCTION.

Exhibition

„Violently Y/ours“

at gallery Hofkabinett, Linz/A 15.1.-6.2.2010

photo shot at Tobias Rehberger's studio

Arbeiten auf Stoff, Digital Print on cloth, (hard - soft), Lichtkästen (Neon shop window displays), Videos, Drucke (Prints)

Videos: „Ornamental_409“; „Violent“, „Fußgängerzone“ performed at Lentos museum, (22.10.09),

& from installation at Städelmuseum, Frankfurt (4.09)

photos by Bill Bayer & STR

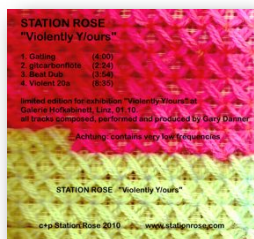

Now

the media artists go consciously away from the media art (scene)'s devoutness to the future, and concentrate on the crisis-ridden present, with new digital & analog works.

_____Life instead of Artificial Life, present instead of the future.

They call their current direction "New Media Arte Povera".

For the solo-exhibition this means that STR acts in the sense of not wasting material, which must be retained nowadays. When "Recycling Surplus to Save Nature", they used the surplus, the fall-out of their studio in Frankfurt as samples for new works, besides digital prints on cloth. A very personal material, recently used by Elisa Rose, are her (worn) tights, recycled to yarn. Stills from the AV-compositions "Violent", "Fussgaengerzone" and "Ornamental_409", performed at Lentos museum, now become stitched, printed, sewn pieces of art, transfered into <real> material. The 500 year old building, in which gallery Hofkabinett is accommodated, represents a further exciting contrast to the in the meantime 21 years of digitality of the artists.

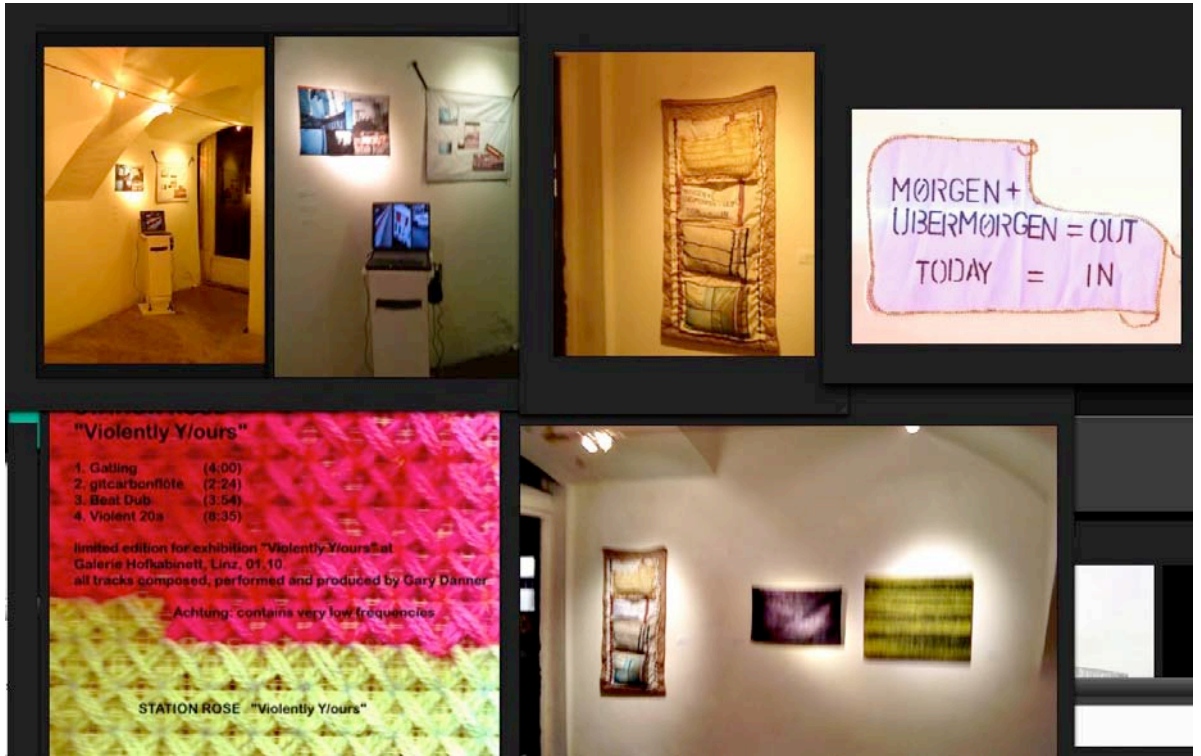

In addition, AV-compositions will be shown, & a limited music-edition <on Audio-Cassette> is available in the exhibition, too.

:// huge videoscreens from the performance at Lentos museum became stitched, small sized art pieces for the exhibit.

MÖRGEN +
 ÜBERMÖRGEN = OUT TODAY = IN

"Violently Yours"

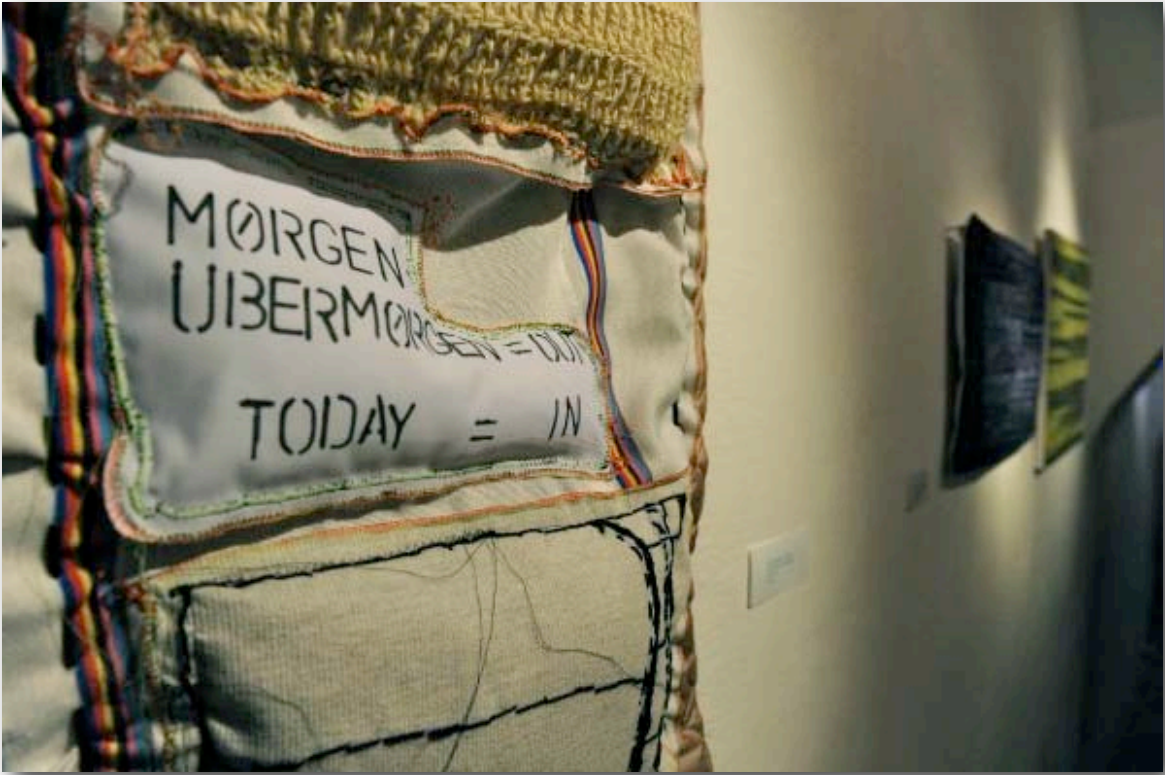

1. Gatling	(4:00)
2. gitcarbonflöte	(2:24)
3. Beat Dub	(3:54)
4. Violent 20s	(8:35)

limited edition for exhibition "Violently Yours" at Galerie Hofkabinett, Linz, 01.10.
 all tracks composed, performed and produced by Gary Danner

Achtung: contains very low frequencies

STATION ROSE "Violently Yours"

„Fußgängerzone“ - installation

Performance-still from Lentos museum

very early digital prints (9-needle & bubble-jet, 1987 -)

Ornamental_409, 2009

